

HB 147 -- Residential Property Tax Assessment Procedures

Sponsor: Davis

This bill extends to all taxpayers the procedural protections relating to physical inspection and computerized assessment valuation systems of residential real property that are currently only available to a taxpayer living in St. Louis City or a charter county.